The Ebor Singers

Sheer perfection Yorkshire Post

Acclaimed for performances and recordings that sparkle with fresh insight and vibrant musicality, The Ebor Singers, together with its contemporary music ensemble Zodiac and early music vocal consort Harmonie Universelle, has earned a reputation as one of the most exciting professional vocal ensembles in the north of England.

I'd be happy to hear them any day, in early music, late music, even something in the middle

The Times

The Ebor Singers offer carefully researched programmes and passionate performances. If you are part of our regular audience, then you know that these atmospheric and friendly evenings are not to be missed! If you are new to The Ebor Singers, join in the musical celebrations and enjoy a warm welcome. Our concerts are held in the stunning Chapter House of York Minster and other beautiful venues across York city centre. We look forward to exploring over five hundred years of music with you.

In addition to their annual series of self-promoted concerts, The Ebor Singers have appeared in the York Early Music Festival and other UK festivals, and featured on television, radio and CD. For more details, please visit the choir at
